Refrigeration to facilitate product expansion

“When we began our search for a refrigeration supplier, we were rather apprehensive about it. We had little to no knowledge about the best way of managing our expansion into various retail stores and obviously refrigeration was a necessity.

The Lowe team made the process very straight forward, suggesting Long-Term Rental which really worked for us given the number of stores we were expanding into. Having the branding, shipping, installation and maintenance included too meant we had even less to worry about during a very busy time for the business! Overall, I'm delighted with long-term rental with Lowe.

- CEO, Little Moons

Refrigeration to facilitate product expansion

“After lighting, refrigeration was our highest operating cost. We were looking for a way of saving on energy costs while also ensuring our equipment was up-to-date with industry standards.

Long-Term Rental with Lowe allowed us to invest in new refrigeration units for our stores without a huge upfront cost. With more energy efficient units installed by the Lowe team, a complete maintenance package included and reduced energy costs, we were saving on costs almost immediately.
