

Large US Retailer, Seasonal Support

Lowe sourced and installed temporary refrigeration units to cover short-term retail rental requirements.

Providing 2 door display coolers and display freezers over the course of a 3 month period, ensuring attractive product presentation and efficient cold storage during a period of increased seasonal demand.

“Great customer service. When we reach out for rental needs, we get a quote / response in minutes! And the equipment is available to deliver next day. You can't go wrong!
