

Large US Retailer, Seasonal Support

Since July, Lowe have worked with a national retailer to supply stores in 15 different cities in Texas with a range of refrigeration units to cover equipment breakdowns. Mobilizing anywhere from a single unit to a dozen units to meet emergency demand in store within 48-72 hours.

Total units out at one time: up to 450 doors with expedited deliveries to meet emergency demand rental needs.

“It is imperative we work with high quality vendors who provide quality products... Lowe is one such a vendor, they simply make things happen. When it comes to overall product quality, logistics, communication, on-time deliveries, responses, changes, and other needs, they truly are second to none.
